- The Government of Yukon has released its economic resilience plan to help Yukon’s economy rebound with responsiveness and adaptability while Yukoners remain safe and healthy.¹⁰
 - “The plan charts the government’s economic response to the pandemic and how we are adapting to build economic resilience. It identifies five key areas of focus: people, jobs, business supports, infrastructure development and economic diversification.”
 - “Throughout the pandemic, our government’s economic and social supports have protected local businesses and bolstered vital sectors of our economy. We continue to adapt programs to meet the changing needs of Yukon businesses. The economic resilience plan reflects our commitment to continue supporting local businesses to ensure Yukon is well positioned to emerge from the pandemic stronger than ever.”
 - To discuss supports and potential funding that businesses may be eligible for, please contact the Department of Economic Development at 867-456-3803 or ecdev@yukon.ca.
