

ANN M BALL BURSARY

For Tahltan Women who are Emerging or Active Leaders

ONE BURSARY AVAILABLE IN THE AMOUNT OF $5000

Galore Creek is very excited to announce the first annual Ann M Ball Bursary in honour of her contribution to the Galore Creek Project, the mining industry and the Tahltan Nation.

Eligibility

- Of Tahltan ancestry.
- Applicants must provide confirmation of Tahltan ancestry, including names of Tahltan parents and grandparents.
- Identify as Female.
- Enrolled or accepted in an education program.

APPLICATION AND CRITERIA

Applicants must complete an application form available on GCMC.ca and Tahltan.org websites. The application form requires that applicants provide a brief personal summary of the following areas:

- Community involvement, detailing the location and organization
- Leadership involvement or objectives
- Career Objectives
- Financial Need

Members participating in remote learning opportunities are also considered.

Applicants will be evaluated on their personal statement and bursary application form, please ensure all requested information is included.

A selection committee composed of GCMC, Tahltan representatives and independent reviewers will consider all applications according to the above criteria.

DEADLINE: Applications must be received by GCMC via applicant's own email on or before October 1, 2021 at midnight.

Please send your application to: GCMCbursaries@gcmc.ca