SIGNIFICANT UPDATES FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

- Today, the Government of Canada announced that funding for the Safe Voluntary Isolation Sites Program (SVISP) will be extended until March 2023.¹⁰ Details include:
 - “An additional $68.4 million will be provided for safe voluntary isolation sites across Canada over the next year to help people who have COVID-19 — or have been exposed to it — access safe isolation accommodations to keep themselves, their families, and their community safe.”
 - “The SVISP directly supports cities, municipalities, and health regions across Canada that are at-risk of COVID-19 community transmission. Sites selected under the Program will continue to provide an accessible location where people can safely self-isolate for the required period.”
 - “Access to these sites is completely voluntary and local public health officials determine eligibility and manage all aspects of the sites.”
 - “Self-isolation remains one of the most effective ways to help stop the spread of COVID-19.”
