

ANN M BALL BURSARY FOR EMERGING OR ACTIVE TAHLTAN LEADERS

Application Requirements

Applicants must be registered Tahltan members in order to be considered for a bursary award. Enrolled or accepted in an education program.

Registered Tahltan

Enrolled in an Education Program

ONE BURSARY AVAILABLE IN THE AMOUNT OF $5000.

Galore Creek offers the Ann M Ball Bursary in honour of Ann Ball's contribution to the Galore Creek Project, the mining industry and the Tahltan Nation.

Applicants must complete a GCMC application form available on www.gcmc.ca and www.tahltan.org. The application form requires that applicants provide a brief personal summary of the following areas:

Leadership Involvement

Community Involvement

Career Objectives

Financial Need

DEADLINE: Applications must be submitted by email to GCMCbursaries@gcmc.ca or via our online form on www.gcmc.ca/communities by September 28, 2023 at midnight.

Applicants will be evaluated on their personal statement and bursary application form, please ensure all requested information is included. Members participating in remote learning opportunities are also considered. A selection committee composed of GCMC, Tahltan representatives and independent reviewers will consider all applications according to the above criteria.

More info here:

