

2023/2024 Red Chris JV Mine Bursary

Deadline: November 19, 2023 at midnight

Are you a member of the Tahltan Nation? Are you enrolled or looking to enroll in post-secondary education, an apprenticeship, or a trade or skill development program?

Categories

- Academic bursary awards for degree, diploma, or certificate programs at accredited post-secondary institutions
- Trade Bursary Awards for registered apprentices and students in foundation programs
- Community Capacity Development/ Skill Development bursary awards for Tahltan community members in accredited programs that will benefit the capacity of communities in Tahltan Territory

Criteria

A selection committee will review all applicants to determine award recipients.

- A letter of intent describing your education and career goals, cultural activities, community involvement, academic and personal achievements, and financial need
- Most recent transcripts (A copy is sufficient. This does not need to be official)
- Acceptance letter and/or proof of registration in a post-secondary program or trade
- Program costs, budget, and funding sources (Including any previous bursaries or scholarships achieved)
- Registration with OnTrack

Note: Any applications missing the above information will not be received

Eligibility

Applicants are eligible for bursary consideration if:

- They are a registered member of the Tahltan Nation via TCG
- They are enrolled in a post-secondary program
- They are a registered apprentice
- They are enrolled in a trade or skill development program through a post secondary institution or accredited program

Please Apply Online at: tahltan.org/bursaries

Questions? Contact: bursary@tahltan.org

Apply Now

